

Alphabet Soup for the Instructor of Cued Speech National Certification Exam

Instructors of Cued Speech should be familiar with a variety of terms, people, and acronyms, as well as, associations and organizations that work with deaf individuals. The following list is not exhaustive; it is meant to serve as a starting point for review. Be familiar with the acronyms, terminology, and people listed. Know how they relate to Cued Speech.

Organizations: Facts instructors should know about each organization include: the mission and vision, the constituency, and general location.

- Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf
- American Academy of Audiology (AAA)
- American Sign Language Teachers Association (ASLTA)
- American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA)
- American Society for Deaf Children (ASDC)
- Cued Language Network of America (CLNA)
- Cued Speech Association of Minnesota (CSAM)
- Cued Speech Association of Maine (CSAME)
- Cuemunication Resources & Services, LLC (CueRS)
- Hearing Loss Association of America (HLAA - formerly Self Help for Hard of Hearing People/SHHH)
- Language Matters, Inc. (LMI)
- Maryland Cued Speech Association (MDCSA)
- National Association of the Deaf (NAD)
- National Cued Speech Association (NCSA)
- New England Cued Speech Services (NECS)
- Northern Virginia Cued Speech Association (NVCSA)
- Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID)
- Telecommunications for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Inc. (TDI)
- Testing, Evaluation, and Certification Unit (TECUnit)

Acronyms related to Cued Speech/cued language:

- BCSPR – Basic Cued Speech Proficiency Rating
- CAECS-E – Cued American English Competency Screening – Expressive
- CAECS-R – Cued American English Competency Screening - Receptive
- CLEAR – Cuers for Language, Education, and Advocacy Retreat
- CLT – cued language transliterator
- CLTSA – Cued Language Transliterator State-level Assessment
- CLTNCE – Cued Language Transliterator National Certification Exam
- CST – Cued Speech transliterator
- EIPA – CS – Educational Interpreting Performance Assessment – Cued Speech

Camps/Places

- Cue Camp Friendship
- Cue Camp New England (Maine)
- Cue Camp New York
- Cue Camp Virginia
- CST Training Program
- Gallaudet University
- Spring Camp Cheerio (formerly Cue Camp Cheerio)

Terminology

- acquired hearing loss
- acoustics
- allomorph
- allophone
- American Sign Language
- amplification/listening devices
- audiogram
- audiologist
- audiology
- auditory neuropathy/dys-synchrony
- bilateral loss
- CART
- coarticulation
- Code of Conduct
- conductive hearing loss
- congenital deafness
- consonant (voiced, voiceless, nasal, glottal stop)
- C-PRINT
- cued American English
- cued language
- cued phonics
- Cued Speech
- Cuem
- Deaf vs. hard of hearing
- deciBel
- digraph
- diphthong
- diplacusis
- external ear parts
- flick
- grapheme
- hearing loss (factors, classification, degrees, etiology, types)
- inner ear parts
- interpreter
- interpreter codes
- liaison
- manually coded English
- middle ear parts
- morpheme
- morphology
- orthography
- phone
- phoneme
- phonemic awareness
- phonetics
- phonics
- phonological recoding
- phonology
- pragmatics
- prosody
- r-colored vowels
- ranges of severity of hearing loss
- semantics
- sign systems
- SLP
- syllable
- syllabic
- syntax
- tinnitus
- toneme
- transliterator (oral, cued language, educational, sign)
- trigraph
- voicing (as it pertains to phonemes)
- voicing (as it pertains to interpreting)
- vowel (nasalized, flapped, glottal stop)

People/Researchers/Authors

- J. Alegria
- B. Charlier
- Bryan Clarke
- Dr. R. Orin Cornett
- Kelly Crain
- C. Hage
- Mary Elsie Henegar Daisey
- Leah Henegar
- Daniel Koo
- Jean Krause
- Carol LaSasso
- Jacqueline Leybaert
- Daniel Ling
- Melanie Metzger
- Gaye Nicholls
- O. Perier
- William Stokoe
- R. M. Uchanski
- Jean Wandel